SKETCHES AND SKETCHES

Sketch out your initial ideas, thoughts, or insights trying to explore and experience them. You never know where your mind will take you, so be observant and open-minded. Let your hand loose as listening to your intuitive imaginations. Place your paper sketches with a brief note about each concept.

first I had the idea of creating this painting by the hot characters after deciding to act, save the earth and make it greener, and by this, users would know that they also can act to solve this problem

other idea was to show the idea of feeling hot with different obvious characters from different countries, cultures, and positions rather than just red characters. this idea would show that the problem of global warming affects everyone so we should all act to save our earth
